

You Are Done With Range-Worry When You Get A New Glenwood "Makes Cooking Easy"

Your Old Range taken in Exchange

REYNOLDS & SON, BARRE, VT.

The Times' Daily Short Story.

Maggy Darr's Temptation

(Original.)

Maggy Darr was a nursemaid in a large city. One day her mistress told her that for the sake of economy she would dispense with her services. The lady should have helped her to get another place, but she was a selfish woman and turned her servant away with the few dollars she owed her to shift for herself.

Maggy's mother was a widow with one child besides Maggy, a boy two years old. It so happened that at the time of the girl's discharge her mother fell sick, and the money Maggy brought home from her mistress was all the means the family possessed to pay rent and the doctor and buy food and medicines. The consequence was that it was more than exhausted within a few days.

One night Maggy left her sick mother and her little brother, who was crying for food, and went out with desperation in her heart. She was walking along the street crying when she was stopped by a rough looking man with the question:

"Hello, little girl! What's the matter?"

Maggy gave an account of her condition and the reasons for it.

"Young woman," said the man, "if you don't take care of yourself no one won't take care of you. I'm an escaped jailbird myself. Nobody won't give me no work, and I've got to take what I need, whether the law allows or not. Say, I've been watchin' a house around the corner. There's a window open, just enough for a girl like you to crawl through. Besides, you'd step lighter 'n me. You go in and get some awag, while I watch for cops outside."

But one vision danced before Maggy's eyes—carrying home food to stop the crying of her little brother. Her brain was not very expansive, and there was no room in it for more than one thought at a time. The immorality of the means by which she intended to procure the coveted result was crowded out. She went with the man, who showed her the window and, handing her a revolver and a dark lantern, told her to use the former if it would save her from being caught. Maggy was so beside herself with her proposed work that she took both mechanically, not knowing what she did. Entering the house and not finding anything of value in the lower rooms, she went upstairs. The door of a bedroom stood ajar, and she threw the light into the room. On a bed lay a girl about her own age, sleeping. She was a perfect picture of tranquility, her face an expression of absolute innocence. Maggy's light flashed on a dressing table, lighting up jewels that had been laid aside for the night. Then she turned the rays again on her from whom she was to take these jewels.

SOME LIQUOR COMPLICATIONS.

Three Former Fifth Class Licensees Arrested at Rutland.

Rutland, March 30.—James Kelley, proprietor of the Banquet hotel, Michael Dugan, and John H. Dugan, former

A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM, OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER.

Removes Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Moth Patches, Etc., and Every Blemish on Beauty, and Every Blemish on Beauty.

It has done the best of 60 years, and is so harmless that it can be used by the most delicate of skin.

Accept no imitations. The name, Dr. T. Felix Gouraud, is on the box, and the lady of the house (a patient) will use them, I assure you.

Dr. T. Felix Gouraud, 17 Great Jones St., N. Y.

is the least harmful of all the skin preparations.

For sale by all Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers in the U. S., Canada, and Europe.

W. H. HOPKINS, Prop., 17 Great Jones St., N. Y.

ALL DOG LICENSES MUST BE PAID ON OR BEFORE APRIL 1. AFTER THAT DATE THE AMOUNT OF THE TAX WILL BE DOUBLED. 6t

IN HUB MARKETS

Quotations on the Leading Products in Demand.

Boston, March 29.—Butter has advanced again in sympathy with other markets, being firm but quiet. Choice fresh made, 29¢; northern creamery, 28¢; western, 27¢; dairy, 25¢.

Cheese is firm, with prices fully maintained on the recent basis. Liverpool has been steadily advancing. The quotations are: York state, 14¢; Vermont twins, 13¢.

Eggs have been in good demand and prices are well sustained, in spite of heavy receipts. Choice nearby, 20¢; 21¢; eastern, 18¢; western, 17¢.

Beans are easier, with trade rather quiet. Carload lots, pea, $1.82; yellow, $2.15; medium, $2.20; red kidney, $2.30; California small white, $2.50; jobbing prices, 10¢ higher.

It cannot be learned that there is any new maple sugar or syrup in the market, though there are plenty of compounds, made up from cane sugar or syrup and last year's sugar melted over. The new law bears hard upon this kind of trade, as the full story regarding the "compound" must be printed on the package.

It has been a rather quiet week in the local market for fruits and vegetables. Changes in prices have not been very numerous, and in most cases they have been declines. The market is well stocked.

Potatoes are still very plenty, and as there has been no improvement in the demand, they continue weak. There is a full supply of domestic onions, and only choice, sound stock brings top quotations. Turnips are easy under rather large offerings, and a light inquiry. Spinach is coming in freely and is cheap. Drumhead cabbages are lower, but the other kinds are firm. Lettuce has declined, but celery is higher. String beans are in steady request at slightly lower prices than prevailed a week ago. Squashes are firm. Tomatoes are not plenty, and fancy lots are held above quotations. Rhubarb is moving well, and asparagus meets with a ready sale. Cucumbers are a bit easier. The call for sweet potatoes is quiet, and supplies are clearing up slowly.

Apples are quiet and little changed. Cranberries have a very slow sale at irregular prices. Strawberries, particularly choice lots, are scarce and high.

Potatoes—Arcostock green mountains, $3.80; 40c a bu; hebrons, 35¢; 28¢; Dakota reds, 35¢; sweet, 35¢; Vineland, $1.50 a bu; half-bbl baskets, $1.75.

Onions—Native, $1.50 a bu; Bermuda, $2.35 a crt; looks, 72¢ a doz heads.

Turnips—Yellow, $1 a bu; white, 75¢; 81¢ a bu; French white, $2 a bu.

Spinach, etc.—Hothouse spinach, $1.25 a bu; Norfolk, $1.25 a bu; hothouse dandelions, $1.25 a bu; beet greens, 60¢ a bu.

Cabbages—Drumhead, $1 a bu; cavity, $1.75 a bu; red, $1.25 a box.

Lettuce, etc.—Hothouse lettuce, $1.25 a box of three doz heads; mint, 50¢ a doz boxes; watercress, 75¢ a doz b; parsley, 75¢ a bu.

Celery—White, $1.25 a bu; pascal, $2.00 a doz heads; Boston market, $4.00 a doz heads.

Beans—Southern string beans, $5 a crt; butter beans, $5 a crt.

Squashes—Turban, $1.25 a bu; marrow, $1.50 a bu; Hubbard, $2.00 a ton.

Tomatoes—Southern, $4 a crt of six b; hothouse, 50¢ a pound.

Miscellaneous—Asparagus, native hothouse, 40¢ a bu; California, $2.50 a doz heads; new bed beets, $1.50 a doz heads; old beets, 75¢ a bu; carrots, 50¢ a bu; parsnips, 75¢ a bu; cucumbers, $3.00 a box; eggplants, $1.50 a doz; radishes, 30¢ a doz heads; Brussels sprouts, 12¢ a qt; oyster plants, $1.50 a doz heads; southern peppers, $3.50 a crt; hothouse rhubarb, 30¢ a pound; California cauliflower, $5 a crt.

There is a firmer market for pork provisions, with barrel pork and hams higher. There has been a further decline in the market supplies of logs, as compared with the recent movement.

Fresh beef is easier, and trade is quiet and drab, even at the decline.

Choice heavy cattle, 7¢; light, 5¢; heavy hinds, 6¢; light, 4¢; heavy fores, 5¢; light, 4¢.

Lamb is scarce for choice and prices are much higher. The best eastern springers bring $1.00 each, while New York springers are quoted

NOW

Now is the most critical period of the winter. Pneumonia, Grip and Bronchitis hold full sway. Fortify yourself against these diseases by taking Magee's Emulsion. It is a pure preparation of Cod Liver Oil, Malt and Hypophosphites. It warms, builds up and tones your system and enables you to throw off all colds. Contains no alcohol. It is a builder—not a destroyer.

E. A. DROWN, Barre, Vt.

at $5.00 each; muttons and yearlings are steady; veals are scarce and firm. Fall lambs, 11¢; 12¢; yearlings, 8¢; muttons, 8¢; veals, 11¢; fancy, higher.

Poultry is in moderate supply. The bulk of the receipts is quiet for all fowls. The demand is quiet for all grades and prices show little change. Western turkeys, small, 21¢; mixed sizes, 20¢; northern chickens, large, 19¢; medium, 18¢; northern fowls, 14¢; western, 13¢; green, 10¢; ducks, 12¢.

The best grades of hay are in good demand and prices are firm; low and medium grades are dull. Straw is in moderate demand, but prices are steady. Millfeed is easy. Hay, No. 1, $1.00; low grades, $1.15; rye straw, $2.00; oat straw, $1.00.

All wheat prices are lower than a week ago, the net decline being 2¢, July showing the most change. The market evidently was top heavy, and the continued favorable weather for the growing crop caused those heavily loaded with long wheat to unload. It is this which has been pressed for sale of late, and which carries the market down to the low range. Naturally the favorable reports on winter wheat caused a heavy wheat to show the greatest

LAST CROSSING ON ICE.

Party of Gentlemen From Plattsburgh Claiming the Honor of Making It.

A party of gentlemen from Plattsburgh claim the honor of making the last trip across the ice bridge of Lake Champlain. It will be the last trip so far as they are concerned for no amount of money would tempt them to repeat the experience. The party consisted of Julius Mendelssohn and Bernard St. Louis of Plattsburgh, A. Schmitzer of Brooklyn, N. Y., and F. J. McPadden of Rochester, N. Y., the last two being commercial travelers. The party engaged a team at Plattsburgh Tuesday morning for the purpose of driving to Grand Isle to take the train to Burlington. William Hoag, the veteran stage driver, was also driving over and the party were more than willing he should go ahead and test the ice, which he did. The trip was full of excitement from start to finish. There was a lot of water on the ice and in some places the slush was a foot deep. One of the horses stepped in a hole and came near turning the rig over. Part of the time the travelers got out and walked. Every minute they expected they were going to break through and they were very glad to reach the island. They will make the trip when they come again by rail all the way. Considerable difficulty was experienced in landing, the ice being very soft about the shore.

PARLOR PRIDE STOVE POLISH

LIQUID—READY FOR INSTANT USE.

A few drops of Parlor Pride Stove Polish gives the stove a brilliant lustre shine, making the stove and the parlor. No soiled hands—easy to apply—always ready. No water used (water in paste polishes ruins the stove). No dried-up paste remains after using a while. Parlor Pride good to the last drop. Sold by all dealers. To have by Smith, they corner S. Mill, Stoughton & Fraser, B. D. Tomlin, Eastman Bros., Mrs. G. H. Griffin, W. H. Corner, Bowden & Lyon, F. D. Ladd, Reynolds and Son and Prindle & Averill.

NEXT!

—Washington Post.

GROTON STIRRED UP.

Child Died in Arms of One of Women Who Were Arrested.

Groton, March 30.—The trial of Louis Pari and wife, Mrs. Lucy Buzzi and Mrs. Simonelli, charged with selling liquor came to an abrupt adjournment Tuesday through the death of Mrs. Simonelli's five-year-old child in her arms while on the way to the court room. The party was going to Hatch hall when Mrs. Simonelli stopped at the railroad station and sat down. The child, which had been ill with pneumonia, grew rapidly worse and died within a few minutes. The funeral of the child was held today.

The same night two men went to the Simonelli house, demanding liquor. They were refused admission to the house, whereupon they seized stones and hurled them against the building, wrecking some windows. The men were driven away by several shots from a revolver.

The parties arrested for selling will have a hearing soon.

WAS 105 YEARS OLD YESTERDAY.

William Welch of Lempster, N. H., Received His Friends.

Claremont, N. H., March 29.—William Welch today received congratulations from hundreds of his friends and relatives over the celebration of his 105th birthday anniversary, a his son's home in Lempster, where he has been residing for the last year.

Mr. Welch is the oldest veteran of the Civil War, besides being the oldest Mason in the United States. He was born March 29, 1800, in St. Andrew's, N. B., and conducted an extensive lumber business, until a freshet washed away many years of hard labor, and somewhat crippled him. He was married at the age of 42 years to Miss Ellen Thompson of the same place, June 12, 1842, and soon after came to New Hampshire to continue in business, and located in Lempster and made the first strip lath used in this section.

BUILDING IN RUTLAND.

Preparing Going on for An Active Season in That Line.

Rutland, March 30.—The opening of the season this spring will see preparations for the erection of more new houses in this city than for any year in some time. The great demand for good tenants which has been experienced for the last three years is by no means on the wane and rents keep on the same high basis. Among the finest residences to be constructed this year will be those of John H. Wood, treasurer of the Stoddard Manufacturing Co., on East Center street and Frank J. Wade on Washington street.

The Inevitable Victor

in the war against coughs and colds is Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. Pleasant to take and always reliable.

Sold by all druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops Cure in One Minute.

Vermont Athletes in Competition.

The athletes of the University of Vermont held their annual indoor meet at the gymnasium Monday evening in the presence of a large audience. The event proved to be one of the best, if not the very best ever held. All the contestants were in good condition and the spirit of class rivalry gave a zest to all the events. The three lower classes left the senior class far behind in the struggle for supremacy, which was owing to the fact that the seniors have no gymnasium work. The struggle among the lower classes was very exciting for they were evenly matched. The classes of 1907 and 1908 were tied for the championship. Each scoring 28.5 points. The junior class was second with 18 points scored. Henry F. Rustad, '07, made the highest individual score, which was 10 points. William H. Wilson, '08, made 9 points and Melvin F. Masters, '08, made 8 points.

A Ragged Hero.

Geo. F. Hall, everybody's favorite comedian, in Maurice J. Fielding's comedy-drama, "A Ragged Hero," will be the attraction Monday, April 3d. The sensational effects of this play are new and startling, its situations thrillingly worked up, and its climax brought about in a way to win popular approval. One of its scenes invariably brings auditors to their feet and wins for the players presenting it an enthusiastic cheer. A little girl is seen at the upper window of a burning farmhouse. The "ragged hero," attracted by her cries for help grasps a awing which hangs from an old elm tree, mounts a nearby shed, sweeps across the yard and, grasping the little miss in his arms, once more swings back out of the smoke and flames to safety.

Come now, own up, tell the honest truth

You don't like those gray hairs, do you? And your husband certainly doesn't like them. Then why not buy a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor? It restores color to gray hair every time. Cures dandruff also. Sold for over sixty years.

Hinkel's Flour!

After a few years of experience in the grocery business we can honestly say that this is the best all round Flour we have ever sold, and we do not believe it can be equaled in this city. It makes more bread and better bread than any other Flour you can get for the money. It is made especially for us from selected wheat. After you once try it you will understand why our customers will take no other brand.

CHESSER & BIRD,

Telephone 232-12

323 North Main Street.

Meats and Groceries.

Ladies and Gents:

If you are looking for a good Book at a small cost, now is your time to look at our BOOK WINDOW. We have just received which we propose to sell at 50 cents per volume. You can find among the titles "Rockhaven," "Quincy Adams Sawyer," "The Givers," "In the Palace of the King," "Right of Way," "An Apache Princess," etc. REMEMBER these are the regular 75-cent, $1.00 and $1.25 Books, and we have only a few left.

A NEW LINE OF BOOKS,

IDEAL BOOK AND STATIONERY STORE,

Hale's Block, Next Door to People's Shoe Store. W. FRANK HARRIS.

Will You Do Your Cooking on a Gas Range Next Summer?

To all people who will put in a Gas Cooking Range during the months of March and April, 1905, the Gas Company will furnish them with gas for its use entirely FREE OF CHARGE for one month after the Range is installed. This will give the people an opportunity to become accustomed to the use of the Range at the expense of the Company, while the Company will be able to keep their men employed during these dull months to the advantage of all, as after May 1st the Company will be especially busy in extending their street mains and making other permanent improvements. Liberal terms will be made to all purchasers of Ranges when necessary. Call at the office, No. 213 North Main Street, opposite Depot Square, where you will always find a full supply of Ranges and Gas Fixtures, or drop a postal to the Company and a representative will call on you.

People's Lighting, Heating and Power Co.,

JOHN J. FLYNN, President.